Report description:

Butter and spreads in Turkey is projected to see positive, if slower, retail volume growth in 2024. Having seen a strong decline in retail volume sales in 2022, the leading category, butter continues to see a healthy rebound in consumption in 2024. The decrease in the demand for butter demand coincided with a notable reduction in butter production in 2022. This was informed by export bans, which came into effect in May 2022, as well as a significant devaluation of the Turkish lira, which led to...
