Report description:

The Greek cheese market is projected to exhibit stagnant performance in retail volume terms in 2024, largely due to ongoing inflationary pressures and rising prices. As a cornerstone of Greek cuisine, cheese continues to play a vital role in everyday meals. However, the increasing cost of cheese has led consumers to alter their purchasing habits, with a significant shift towards more cost-effective private label options. These private labels have notably improved in quality, enabling them to com...
