Report description:

In 2024, baby food in Myanmar remains affected by negative macroeconomic conditions, such as rises in the average unit price amid high inflation and subsequent strong pressure on household income levels. The economic situation poses challenges particularly to premium and mid-priced baby food brands, as many parents prioritise products that offer both affordability and quality simultaneously.

Euromonitor International's Dairy Products and Alternatives in Myanmar report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2019-2023, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in <|Year|> directly informs our forecasts to 2028, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.

Product coverage: Baby Food, Dairy, Plant-based Dairy.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
