Report description:

In 2024, dairy products and alternatives in Norway is projected to see a slight overall rise in retail volume sales and fast retail current value growth. High, if slowing, inflation rates, high interest and price hikes have made consumers more price-sensitive. Moreover, Norway has faced a milk shortage, leading to a need to import milk. For two consecutive years, milk production plunged to reach a new record low. For example, the dominant player, Tine, has had to import milk to cover production,...
