Report description:

In Austria, deodorants witnessed double-digit growth in current value terms boosted by price increases. Retail volume growth remained steady but was slightly slower than in 2022. As an everyday product, demand held steady as consumers consider deodorants to be an essential part of their daily routine. With the end of the pandemic and the removal of restrictions, consumers attended more social events and returned to work in greater numbers, providing further incentive to purchase deodorants. In a...
