Report description:

Retail volume sales of headphones in Taiwan continued to decline in 2024, despite the increasingly important role they play in local consumers' lives. In addition to providing a high-quality audio experience for music and other forms of entertainment, they can also be used for communication, such as when making phone calls or participating in video conferences. With more people working and studying from home post-pandemic, there is a greater need for high-quality, comfortable headphones that pro...
