Report description:

The major focus in health and beauty specialists in Egypt has shifted from premium brands to ones using all natural ingredients, vegan products and reduced levels of chemicals in the production of products. In this vein, the offers of many brands, global, international and local, have been extended with the creation of vegan or free from chemical lines. The offer of local products is taking the market by storm, with options featuring a variety of natural ingredients, such as oranges, jojoba oil,...
