Report description:

After consecutive declines over 2021-2023, after the pandemic, home video in Germany is set to grow again in retail volume terms in 2024. This is likely to be driven by the European Championship in football, as well as the Olympic Games, both taking place in 2024, which has motivated an increasing number of people to invest in a high-quality television to be able to experience these sports events to the fullest. These events even outweigh the overall purchasing reluctance that is characterising...
