Report description:

Mass beauty and personal care products continues to generate the lion's share of value sales within overall beauty and personal care in 2023. The higher cost of living remained an issue for consumers due to stubbornly high inflation rates in 2023, and this trend continues to benefit mass beauty and personal care products. A high number of consumers looked to save on everyday purchases and opted for mass variants as part of a frugal mindset. Consumer migration from premium to mass skin care brand...
