Report description:

Retail volume sales of mobile phones in Taiwan continued to decline in 2024. Local consumers were reluctant to spend their hard-earned money on discretionary purchases, as fears over inflation and interest rate rises took their toll. Moreover, higher-income consumers, who were relatively unaffected by recession, preferred to splash out on other luxuries, such as international travel, as they had been unable to take holidays during the pandemic. Moreover, a lack of major technological breakthrough...
