Report description:

The other dairy category is set to see current value growth in Israel in 2024. Cooking and sweet creams of 32% and 38% fat content are subject to price supervision. In 2023, there were a number of shortages of these products in different supermarkets. Tara and Tnuva decreased the amounts of price controlled creams that they produced, while adding more creams in different fat percentages that are not price controlled.
