Report description:

In the first half of 2024, the sales of plant-based dairy products in Bolivia have experienced significant growth, primarily driven by the stability of prices and the dominance of local production. The market for plant-based dairy is largely centred around soy milk, given Bolivia's extensive soy production, which plays a crucial role in the national economy and exports. Despite the potential for diversification, most of the soy produced remains concentrated in the soymilk category. This focus ha...
