Report description:

Beauty and personal care in Indonesia registered positive growth in both volume and current value terms in 2023,. As the country emerged from the pandemic, consumers spent more time outside the home, which meant that they were more likely to use products such as colour cosmetics and hair care products as part of their daily routines. The country's expanding middle class population was also a key determinant in driving sales, as well as the younger consumers, who tend to be most receptive to tryi...
