Report description:

The market for savoury snacks in Thailand is projected to experience modest retail volume growth in 2024, a slight improvement over the previous year. Nonetheless, demand is being hindered by cost of living pressures, which have seen consumers reduce their expenditure on discretionary, impulse purchases. At the same time, manufacturers are grappling with increased input costs and supply chain disruptions, which have kept unit prices at an elevated level. As a result, shoppers are seeking value-f...
