Report description:

Yoghurt and sour milk products in Canada is projected to continue to register moderate retail volume and fast retail current growth in 2024. Compared to 2023, retail volume growth is set to be marginally higher, while retail current value growth is predicted to be significantly slower, at the end of the review period. These movements are informed by a slowdown in retail current unit price growth. Yoghurt benefits from a high nutritional value, which has been established for centuries. The growin...
