Overview of Global Telecom Expense Management Market Dynamics :

Drivers

- Significant cost reduction for better management of telecom expenses
- Increasing adoption of mobile phones and other portable devices
- Providing expense transparency
- Increasing demand for TEM due to IoT and cloud based application

Restraint

- Continuous variation in telecom regulations and compliance requirements raises complication in TEM

Opportunities

- Rising automation in telecom expense management
- Increase in the outsourcing of TEM solution
- Low deployment cost and growing demand for cost-efficient TEM solutions

Challenges

- Issue in forecasting future spending
- Complexity in telecom invoices along with continuous variation in charges and billing cycles
