Report description:

Airlines retail value sales are set to grow strongly in current terms in Belgium in 2024. However, low cost and full service flights are facing different situations. Indeed, Ryanair, which is active only in Brussels South Charleroi and is the main low cost airline active in Belgium, already surpassed its pre-pandemic level in 2023, while Brussels Airlines, operating in Brussels Airport and the main full service airline in Belgium, is only expected to reach its 2019 level of sales in 2024, while...
