Report description:

According to the Ministry of Culture and Tourism, travel intermediaries in China organised 132 million domestic trips in 2023, although this accounted for less than 3% of total domestic trips in the same year. Consumers increasingly favour independent travel over group travel, with the help of online travel agents (OTAs) and social commerce platforms such as Red Book and Douyin. Moreover, OTA giant Trip.com has launched the AI-powered assistant TripGenie, which can be used to map out a detailed...
