Report description:

Travel in France, including traditional and online travel agencies and tour operators, saw significant growth in 2023 with a significant increase in sales compared to 2022 as consumers adjusted to life in the new post-pandemic period. 2024 is likely to be an even better year for travel and booking in France. More French people used these travel intermediaries in 2023 and their number continues rising in 2024. Despite the economic pressures facing many people both locally and in other key source...
