Report description:

In 2023, there was increased demand for booking tours by international travellers, supported by initiatives such as the SingapoRewards programme, which allowed international visitors to try one complimentary experience from a list of almost 40 new or off-the-beaten-path experiences in Singapore. However, operators have faced challenges such as manpower shortages, smaller group sizes post-COVID-19 requiring more guides, and logistical issues from last-minute bookings, especially from bleisure tra...
