Report description:

Hotels is set to see another strong year in China in 2024, continuing its rebound in retail current value terms, although will be unable to return to the pre-pandemic (2019) level of sales. Nevertheless, the category continues to benefit from the release of pent-up demand after the pandemic, with travellers taking more overnight trips. The year-on-year value growth has to some extent been driven by the ongoing expansion of hotel outlets. For example, Shanghai Jinjiang's number of hotels nearly d...
