Report description:

Travel continues to perform very well in Belgium in 2024. Indeed, the market is set to see a new record in sales for outbound departures during the year. The main reason for this is the changes made to school holidays in the French-speaking part of Belgium, which is still having a positive impact on travel opportunities. At the same time, inbound tourism also continues to increase, though at a slower pace than outbound travel, partly because tourists from neighbouring countries prefer to travel...
