Report description:

2024 is proving to be a good year for travel to, from and within Denmark, as post-pandemic recovery continues apace. Inflation is normalising following the outbreak of war in Ukraine and its initial impact on the economy. In 2024, Denmark's economy is performing well, with the country benefiting from its geographical location and its traditional key source markets. The fallout from the broader geopolitical situation is much less in Denmark than it is in countries where Russia and some Asian mark...
