Report description:

The travel industry in Indonesia maintains healthy growth in 2024, albeit at lower and more stable levels than seen during the immediate post-pandemic rebound, when growth figures spiked. Overall inbound tourism continues its recovery, in line with international travel trends. In Indonesia, this comes alongside infrastructure improvements in access to Bali, which has helped to further develop inbound tourism flows thanks to more direct routes and more frequent flights to Ngurah Rai airport. Mean...
