Report description:

Demand for eye care in Hong Kong, driven mainly by standard eye care, continues to rise in 2024. Hong Kong's rapidly ageing population, combined with the ubiquitous use of digital devices such as computers, mobile phones, and tablets, has led to greater susceptibility to various eye-related ailments. Confronted with the reality of lengthy delays in accessing professional care, older adults have become increasingly reliant on over-the-counter eye care to manage their symptoms and support their vi...
