Report description:

Analgesics in Portugal is seeing a rebound in current value sales over 2024, following a sharp contraction in 2023. This is mostly attributed to higher average unit prices which is rising in line with higher logistics and raw materials costs. Whilst inflation has fallen in Portugal, the rate in 2024 is still above recent historic levels. Retail volume sales have declined following two years of dynamic growth in 2021 and 2022. In this period, consumers were once again exposed to viruses, includin...
