Report description:

Analgesics in the Czech Republic is undergoing a period of recovery following several years of supply issues. Consumer demand for systemic analgesics is more upbeat in 2024, but with many consumers having stocked up on analgesics in the previous year, retail volume sales are in decline in some adult categories. The shortage of certain painkillers in 2022-2023 resulted in stockpiling, whereby consumers purchased larger packs to have in reserve and save money. The shortage of some paediatric analg...
