Report description:

In 2024, paediatric dermatologicals is the fastest growing category in Bulgaria in 2024, as climate change and the increase in pollution triggers more skin conditions among children. Young skin is typically more sensitive to various irritants. Overall, parental preference for child-specific consumer health products is a progressively growing trend in Bulgaria, reflecting a strong desire for products tailored to the unique needs and sensitivities of children, in contrast to the more traditional a...
