Report description:

The snack market in Thailand is projected to experience robust growth in current value sales in 2024, driven by factors such as rising unit prices, a growing focus on health and wellness, and the ongoing trend towards premiumisation. However, the high cost of living is likely to constrain retail volume growth, as consumers become more cautious with their spending, particularly on non-essential items. This is due to the residual effects of inflationary pressures that began in 2022, which led to r...
