Report description:

Analgesics in Costa Rica has performed positively on the whole in 2024, with most categories expanding in volume terms. While growth in total current value sales is set to be slower than in 2023, this is mainly explained by persistent deflation during the first half of the year. The same factor has helped to boost volume sales, in part because falling prices have encouraged many consumers to stock up on these products for emergencies as opposed to only buying them for immediate use. Additionally...
