Report description:

In 2024, consumer health in Ireland is expected to continue to see retail current value growth, despite inflationary pressures and changing consumer habits. Growth is mainly being driven by more people becoming aware of self-medication options, a stronger focus on health and wellness, and the continuing rise of shopping via retail e-commerce. Categories such as analgesics, cough, cold and allergy remedies, vitamins and dietary supplements, sports nutrition, and digestive remedies account for the...
