Report description:

Dermatologicals has posted healthy growth in current value terms in 2024 although much of this derives from rising unit prices. Inflation has been driven upwards by the impact of Russia's ongoing war in Ukraine while foreign currency exchange rates have come under pressure, which has taken its toll on dermatologicals which relies on a number of imported products. This has placed a cap on volume growth as dermatologicals are often not seen as the first priority in the treatment of minor skin comp...
