Report description:

Retail sales of dermatologicals show positive growth in 2024; however, the category in Uzbekistan lacks development, largely due to the limited emphasis that locals place on dermatological practices. As a consequence, there is a tendency for Uzbeks to economise when buying dermatological products, with many only applying products for vital issues and often postponing treatments. This can also be linked to low levels of disposable income and the volatile nature of the local currency, with fluctua...
