Report description:

Dietary supplements has been one of the most dynamic categories in consumer health in current value terms in 2024 with sales benefiting from frequent key new launches throughout the year. In 2024 the category has benefited both from strong consumer demand but also rising unit prices triggered by high inflation and rising production and logistics costs. Although Russia's invasion of Ukraine led to a significant decline in sales in 2022 as millions of civilians fled the country, sales of dietary s...
