Report description:

In 2024, eye care in Morocco continues to expand at a healthy pace. This growth is supported by strong demand for standard eye care products - as digital eye strain, dry eyes and eye fatigue become more prevalent due to increased screen time a rising number of Moroccans require such products. Further, an ageing population ageing is positively impacting category performance, with older adults more susceptible to various eye health issues. The rising incidence of myopia and other refractive errors...
