Report description:

In 2024, inbound tourism has not fully rebounded, affecting both luxury and mid-market hotels, particularly in the capital and other major cities. These segments are still experiencing a lower number of tourists compared to 2019. Hotels in ski resorts are also increasingly impacted by changing weather patterns and shorter winter seasons, exacerbated by the noticeable absence of Russian and Ukrainian tourists who previously frequented the Slovak mountains. However, this decline is somewhat offset...
