Report description:

Sleep aids in Morocco is seeing volume growth rates surpass those recorded in 2023, while current value sales are also rising. Demand been buoyed post-pandemic, in that Moroccans have become more likely to experience insomnia and related problems as lifestyles have become busier and more stressful with the return to regular routines. Similarly, with inflation remaining an issue, a severe cost-of-living crisis has made people more prone to sleep disorders. The category has also continued to benef...
