Report description:

Sleep aids in Sweden registered stronger retail volume growth in 2024. Swedes are living increasingly busy and stressful lifestyles which is impacting sleep patterns. Moreover, the greater amount of time spent in front of digital screens is being linked with sleep issues. The rate of growth was particularly high during the pandemic, when high levels of stress and anxiety and a decline in the amount of social contact with other people, led to an increase in sleep-related issues, and ultimately, s...
