Report description:

Sales remain close to negligible for sports nutrition in Pakistan in 2024 but are starting to emerge, and while consumer awareness remains low, it is expanding among health-conscious affluent consumers in major cities. Store-based retailing continues to be limited to a small number of specialist sports nutrition and healthcare shops, with these typically based in large cities and often carrying high prices. E-commerce is however simultaneously emerging, with this offering consumers access to a w...
