Report description:

Weight management and wellbeing in Ireland is set to see another consecutive year of retail current value decline in 2024. An increasing number of consumers are sceptical about the efficacy of using such products, with some concerns about unhealthy ingredients and unpleasant or harmful side-effects. Many Irish consumers now understand that only physical activity and a healthy diet will lead to weight loss, and that there are no quick-fix solutions. Together with the wider trend towards rising he...
