Report description:

Given the geographical position of Ireland, air transport is the predominant travel mode in terms of outbound travel in the country, and accounts for the vast majority of outbound trips. As the number of outbound departures from Ireland continues to grow in 2024, so does air travel. This year, outbound Irish travellers are increasingly willing to travel further afield with the strongest growth rates seen in intercontinental travel. Given the relatively higher fares on long-haul routes, this is d...
