Report description:

Overall retail demand for cooking ingredients and meals in South Africa continues to fall, as the economic difficulties of 2023 remain of concern in 2024. Inflation levels in the country remain fairly high, despite the high interest rates. This is in part due to global inflation levels, rising import costs and local manufacturing costs. Value sales of cooking ingredients and meals are rising strongly, while volumes remain under pressure. The lower demand for many cooking ingredients and meals re...
