Report description:

In the first quarter of 2024, Rio Grande do Sul, the southernmost state of Brazil, saw one of the biggest natural disasters in the history of the country. The state experienced heavy rain and flooding, leaving most municipalities underwater, and many thousands of households displaced. The reason for this is that Brazil has been experiencing increasing impacts from La Nina and El Nino, with the latter dictating weather patterns in 2024. Flooding impacted both crops and cattle, and hit the product...
