Report description:

Following several years of double-digit growth, retail volume sales of edible oils witnessed a sharp contraction in 2024 as Argentina's economy fell into recession. Rising unemployment together with the decrease in purchasing power, has led consumers to reuse edible oils more frequently than usual. Foodservice volume sales also contracted to a much deeper extent than in the retail channel. To save money, Argentinians are cutting back on eating out in restaurants and bars. International tourism h...
