Report description:

Despite a rise in the average unit price, retail demand for meals and soups in Australia continues to grow across the category, with chilled ready meals, food kits, and prepared salads particularly strong performers. Local consumers are reducing visits to foodservice to better control their budgets in the face of inflation and the rising cost of living. Therefore, the relatively more affordable prices and the convenience factor of meals and soups are influencing consumers' purchasing decisions.

Euromonitor International's Meals and Soups in Australia report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2019-2023, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in <|Year|> directly informs our forecasts to 2028, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.
