Report description:

The Global Luxury Yacht Market was valued at USD 10.7 billion in 2023 and is projected to grow at a CAGR of 6% from 2024 to 2032. The surging popularity of yacht charters is fueling this growth, as charters provide individuals with the luxury and exclusivity of yachting without the need for ownership. This trend has broadened the customer base. As more individuals experience yachting through charters, a portion will likely transition to purchasing luxury yachts, further propelling the market. The increasing demand for charters is not only benefiting the yachting industry but also spurring innovation, leading to new designs and features in luxury yachts.

The overall luxury yacht industry is classified based on type, length, propulsion, and region.

The market segments yachts into flybridge, sports, and cruiser categories. In 2023, the flybridge segment dominated with a 62% market share and is poised for significant growth. Flybridge yachts, known for their luxury, spaciousness, and versatility, feature an elevated outdoor area above the main deck. This design not only offers ample space for socializing and sunbathing but also provides panoramic views. Often equipped with lounges, dining areas, and bars, these yachts are perfect for entertaining. The elevated flybridge also aids navigation, offering enhanced visibility, making it a sought-after feature for both owners and charter clients. This blend of luxury and functionality has solidified the flybridge's popularity in the market.

The market categorizes propulsion into motor and sail. In 2023, the motor segment commanded a dominant 79% market share. The motor yacht segment is witnessing expansion in the luxury yacht arena, thanks to its unmatched performance and adaptability. Renowned for their power and speed, motor yachts deliver an exhilarating experience on the water, appealing to a diverse audience. Their capability to swiftly cover long distances enables owners to explore multiple destinations in one trip, catering to the adventurous spirit.

In 2023, Europe dominated the global luxury yacht market with a 37% share, thanks to its deep-rooted maritime tradition and robust infrastructure. The continent boasts many of the world's premier yacht builders and designers, including esteemed names like Feadship, Lurssen, and Benetti. Europe's vast network of luxury marinas, yacht clubs, and service facilities nurtures a vibrant yachting community. Furthermore, the Mediterranean, a prime destination for luxury yacht enthusiasts, offers optimal cruising conditions and exclusive ports. This blend of historical expertise, sophisticated infrastructure, and enticing cruising grounds
