Report description:

In 2024, cooking ingredients and meals in Bulgaria witnessed steady retail volume growth whilst current value sales rose only marginally. Most categories registered slight or flat volume growth in 2024 as average unit prices remained high. Although the rate of inflation has decreased in Bulgaria, production costs remained high, and this kept price elevated. On the other hand, rising wages is supporting purchasing power and sustaining volume sales of cooking ingredients and meals.

Euromonitor International's Cooking Ingredients and Meals in Bulgaria report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere.
