Report description:

Cooking ingredients and meals in Costa Rica has performed impressively in 2024, with retail volume and current value growth rates set to surpass those recorded in 2023. The upturn has been most pronounced in volume terms, as pricing pressures fuelled by the recent spike in inflation have now largely receded. Indeed, the country experienced moderate deflation over the first half of the year. Resultant improvements in confidence and spending power have seen people become more inclined to stock up...
