Report description:

Cooking ingredients and meals is expected to register moderate value and volume growth in Lithuania in 2024. With the price-related turmoil of 2022-2023 over, sales in the category are returning to normal. As inflation is no longer a major concern, consumers are increasingly willing to spend in 2024. Unlike other regional markets, consumer confidence in Lithuania remains high, creating a more stable foundation for sales across all price segments.

Euromonitor International's Cooking Ingredients and Meals in Lithuania report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2019-2023, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in <|Year|> directly informs our forecasts to 2028, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.
