Report description:

In 2024, cooking ingredients and meal sales continued to record strong retail value growth. However, rising prices somewhat drove value growth, while challenging retail volume sales. Many consumers focused spending on essential areas during a time of ongoing inflation. In response, brands installed regular promotions and price discounts, gaining ground despite weak consumer sentiment and economic challenges.

Euromonitor International's Cooking Ingredients and Meals in Slovakia report offers in-depth knowledge of the market at a national level, providing local insight and understanding unavailable elsewhere. In addition to the latest retail sales data 2019-2023, it identifies the leading companies, brands and retail outlets, and assesses the key trends and demographic shifts behind consumer demand and sales growth. How key trends such as health and wellness, sustainability and recovery from the pandemic are shaping the market in <|Year|> directly informs our forecasts to 2028, clearly indicating how the market is expected to change.

Product coverage: Edible Oils, Meals and Soups, Sauces, Dips and Condiments, Sweet Spreads.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
